

Diversity and Inclusion at IBIS

This is a place where differences are celebrated.

We celebrate our rich diversity without discrimination and actively take steps to prevent and tackle all sorts of bullying. In doing so, we believe that children at our school will attain more, and our whole community will be happier and more successful.

There are no outsiders in our school.

